Weekly exercise L26_2
Answers

L'exercice de la semaine :

Relevez dans les phrases ci-dessous tous les groupes verbaux, noyaux de proposition qui s'y trouvent. N'écrivez que le groupe verbal noyau (ni sujet, ni complément(s)...).

Un groupe verbal noyau de proposition a un sujet (sauf à l'impératif) et porte la marque du temps.)

Phrases :

"Chinese authorities have ordered an immediate evacuation near the site of the massive fire and explosion that devastated an industrial neighborhood in the northeastern city of Tianjin, according to a state-run newspaper.

The Beijing News on Saturday said all people within three kilometers of the warehouse explosion site have been told to evacuate the area. It said the evacuation order has been confirmed with environmental police and other officials at the scene.

Sodium cyanide, a toxic chemical that can be deadly, was detected east of the site, according to police cited ("cited" n'est pas d'un groupe verbal noyau de proposition, mais un participe passé jouant le rôle d'un adjectif. On aurait, d'ailleurs, pu le remplacer par un adjectif et dire par exemple "present in the paper") by the paper. A team of more than 200 military nuclear and biochemical specialists has been searching the area for possible dangerous chemicals.

Until now, authorities have insisted the area now being evacuated was safe from harmful pollutants, although officials acknowledged they did detect signs of various dangerous substances in the immediate area of the explosion.

Chinese Central Television reported that rescue operations were suspended Saturday after a fresh fire broke out near the scene. It said a car that was slightly damaged ("slightly" est un adverbe et ne fait pas partie du groupe verbal) during the explosion had caught fire and CCTV posted pictures of black smoke rising from the area.

Officials on Saturday said the death toll from the explosion has risen to 85. Tianjin officials say 21 firefighters were among those killed ("killed" joue le rôle d'un adjectif modifiant "those" tout comme on aurait pu dire "those who had been killed" où la relative "who had been killed" modifie "those".), and several are among people still missing."
